

Inaugural Recital of the Benjamin N. Duke Memorial Organ (Flentrop, 1976)

The first concert played on the organ was an informal preview for Duke University students on December 6, 1976. It consisted of all of the pieces on the dedication recital except a piece by Iain Hamilton commissioned for the occasion. The organ was first officially played at the Sunday-morning worship on Founders Day, December 12, 1976. The inaugural recital was played at 5:00 p.m. that same afternoon by Fenner Douglass, Professor of Music and University Organist. The program was as follows.

Passacaglio in D minor Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

Duo sur la Trompète Jean-François Dandrieu (1682-1738)

World Premiere: A Vision of Iain Hamilton
Canopus

Commissioned by the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation for the inauguration of the Flentrop organ.

Chorale Preludes Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Liebster Jesu, wir sind hier
In dir ist Freude
Von Gott will ich nicht lassen

Toccata in F major Johann Sebastian Bach

Selections from Premier (1689) and Jacques Boyvin (1653-1706)
Second (1700) Livres d'Orgue

Concert de Flûtes
Basse de Cromorne
Petit Cornet, ou Petite Tierce
Tierce en taille
Grand Plein Jeu à 5 Parties, à 2 Chœurs

Final, Opus 21 César Franck (1822-1890)